

Dua & Co celebrates 20 years at DNA Business Networking Club's Christmas event on 25th November 2009.

Dua & Co. Chartered Accountants and Business advisors celebrated their 20th year in business at the DNA Networking Xmas Special event on Wednesday 25th November 2009 at The Clay Oven, Wembley.

Dua & Co. is a firm based in Harrow which has helped many clients and contacts achieve tremendous success and savings. At their networking club's Christmas special event they welcomed over 150 attendees who participated in the celebrations. The firm was joined in sponsoring the event by Lexus Edgware Road and SME Business Angels. The event also ran a raffle and auction for "When you wish upon a Star" - a charity working to make a dream come true for children who are suffering from serious illnesses. The firm was successful in raising over £2500 for the charity.

The event was attended by many well known personalities from the London Business community, Asian Entrepreneurs such as George Jatania, who said "I was delighted to be here and made a special effort to join in this wonderful event" and established legal firms such as Bowling & Co whose senior partner Dinesh Raja said "Excellent Event. Congratulations to all at Dua & Co". Members of the DNA Networking Club and their guests also confirmed they enjoyed the event and made strategic connections at the event.

Kevin Connelly, a well known TV presenter entertained the crowd with immaculate impersonations of the famous politicians and sports personalities. In addition Grant Leboff, bestselling author of Sales Therapy®, gave a presentation on Sales and Marketing today and enthralled the audience.

Rakesh Dua the founder of DNA Club and partner of Dua & Co. said "We were delighted to welcome so many entrepreneurs and professional introducers to our event. We are excited about our continued growth and working with clients to give them the services they value."

His business partner Barry Gordon added "It was amazing to see the phenomenal response to our event and the high interest shown by the attendees in our services especially business and tax strategies. It shows that even in these tough times there is a lot that businesses and people can do to save money."

In the presentation the firm shared with the delegates, a couple of clients testified that Dua & Co. has helped them with tax and strategic planning as well as in directing and developing their businesses.
